

New York Times

April 2008

REMAKING MANHATTAN HOUSE

Clockwise from top: as an analyst's office, decorated with inkblots by S. Russell Groves Interior Design; with a closet-turned-banquette by Nancy Ruddy; as a child's bedroom, with paper airplanes by Jennifer Carpenter; with a stretch vinyl ceiling, by Philip Gorrivan; with a banquette inspired by Turkish palaces, by Sara Bengur. Manhattan House, in its midcentury heyday.

EZRA STOLLER/ESTO